Presentation of the UCC by Pastor Carol B.

- UCC was started in 1957
- Congregational is usually in the name of UCC churches for the earlier UCC congregations.
- Churches that were started after 1957 picked other names such as the name of a city or park, etc.

- 35 people in congregation
- This presentation is at: United Church of Christ Thank you to Dilip Amin for recording and producing.

Introductions

Upcoming and Ongoing Events that need our support

- Affinity Groups
 - Vickie S. said that group met and it was small but well received
 - Dick H – his group met but are not sure if this is the way to do it, but was a great meeting and will report back
 - Rev. Connie W's group has met twice successfully
- TILC
 - Pastor Carol B. has been to their meetings, but very few attendees, but this group is looking for a project on MLK Day. – this will help TILC to grow.
- Multifaith Songfest on March 4th at Peninsula Sinai in FC
 - Rev. Kristi D. is leading – ask her for flyer and more info

MLK Day 2108 Planning

- Dana I. sent a note to all super captains asking for project descriptions and numbers etc.
 - Double check with all events to validate that we are coming on MLK Day
 - Ineko T. & Dana I. talked about a project guideline and template to show how we're meeting the needs of the people we are serving, etc. – get handout from Dana I.
 - In some cases principals at school could talk to project team prior to start or in other cases, the project leaders would do this.
 - At Safe Harbor, get their director to address the project team.
 - Always a good idea to address the project team at breakfast depending on project.
 - As we're working on a project each person should introduce themselves and say why we are doing this, etc. suggestion by Gary D.
 - January meeting will have Captain's packets and buttons
- Breakfasts – Gary D.
 - Largest breakfast at First Presbyterian in Burlingame
 - 2nd breakfast is at Mormon church in Foster City
 - Pastor Connie W. is sort of taking lead on First Presbyterian table logistics as she is involved with many projects.
 - 80% of the volunteers attend breakfast
